

Contents

JOANNA BEATA MICHLIC, YULIYA VON SAAL, AND ANNA ULLRICH
Introduction 7

RESEARCH ARTICLES

EDITA G. GZOYAN
Forcibly Transferred and Assimilated: Experiences of Armenian Children during the Armenian Genocide 31

YULIYA VON SAAL
Forced Maturity: Children’s Experiences under German Occupation in Belarus, 1941–1944 53

JOHANNES-DIETER STEINERT
Echoes from Hell: Jewish Child Forced Laborers
and the Holocaust 81

LILIA TOMCHUK
Challenging Narratives: Unveiling Encounters between Jewish Children/Adolescents and Italian Military Units
in Transnistria during the Holocaust 101

LAURA HOBSON FAURE
Jewish Child Refugees from Central Europe in France and the United States: Transnational Perspectives on their Care, 1938–1945 131

JAKUB GAŁĘZIOWSKI
The Best Interests of the Child in National Terms:
Policies Concerning Children of Polish Female Forced Laborers
and Displaced Persons in the Early Cold War Era 151

ANNA M. PARKINSON
Revisiting the “Talking Cure”: Capturing Children’s Wartime
Experiences through Hans Keilson’s Work on Sequential
Traumatization 177

SOURCE COMMENTARIES

WIEBKE HIEMESCH

A Drawing Book, Its Materiality, and Afterlife:

Approaching Children's Lives in Hamburg through

Children's Drawings from the Talmud Torah School 207

ZOFIA TRĘBACZ

"Dear Daddy, you ask me how I spend the whole day,

from morning to evening I think about you . . .":

Children's Letters and the Emotions Hidden Within Them 229

LORRAINE MCEVOY

"We feel we must add our appeal": Humanitarian

Decision-Making in Three Appeals to the Government in Post-Second World War Britain 247

PROJECT DESCRIPTIONS

OKSANA VYNNYK

Surviving Starvation in Soviet Ukraine:

Children and Soviet Healthcare in the Early 1930s 267

BARNABAS BALINT

Intersectional Approaches to Jewish Youth

During the Holocaust in Hungary 276

LUKAS SCHRETTTER AND NADJESCHDA STOFFERS

Ambivalent but Not Indifferent: Interview Narratives

of Lebensborn Children from the Wienerwald

Maternity Home, 1938–1945 283

About the Authors 297